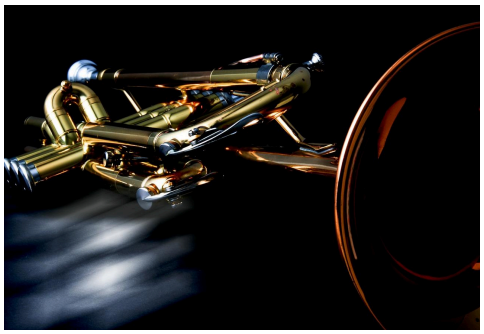
The Intermediate Trumpeter

Building Blocks for Tone and Technique



Done with your beginning book?
Not quite ready for advanced books?
Here's your answer!

In this book (132 pages) you'll find:

- Lip Slurs - to refine embouchure control
- Pattern-Building – for facility and understanding
- Lyrical Legato - to build a beautiful singing sound
- Varied Articulation - for clarity and technique
- Simple Tunes – for enjoyment and 'key sense'

Extra content

- A daily warm-up
- Exercises to develop your high range
- More information about tuning, including just intonation
- Extra practice building the chromatic scale pattern
- 20 Tips to Get Better PLUS 10 Practice Tips that Work

"This is so beautifully written and organized, congratulations! I love that you have an index that recommends what exercises to practice daily. One thing I talk about with all players is the importance of both fundamentals and repertoire, which you have clearly thought through so elegantly."

Ryan Gardner, DMA
Professor of Trumpet, University of Colorado Boulder
President, International Trumpet Guild

"This book is useful for private teachers looking for organized weekly assignments that cover all fundamentals and techniques necessary for the intermediate trumpeter's development. Thank you, Brad Edwards, for giving the trumpet community this new resource to bridge the gap between our beginning and advanced methods."
